

ARLINGTON LIBRARY TEEN BINGO

Directions: Complete five in a row in any direction to get BINGO. All BINGO spots can be done at home or found through the library website, <http://arlingtonlibrary.org>. AISD students can use their AISD student ID and the pin, 1234, to access library resources.

B	I	N	G	O
Take a look at the scholarly e-resources on eBrary.	Go for a walk.	Read a comic, graphic novel, or webtoon.	Watch a movie, TV episode, or video.	Take time for self-care.
Follow a recipe and make something.	Take a photo.	Listen to a song from a new genre.	Check out an item from Overdrive, Libby, or RBDigital (library account required).	Read out loud to someone younger than you.
Call and chat with a loved one.	Read a book.	FREE	Write a review for something you have read or watched.	Follow Arlington Public Library @ArlingtonTXLib on a social media platform.
Try a lesson on Mango Languages (library account required).	Log onto your library account.	Use the library online catalog to search.	Read something that someone has recommended to you.	Explore the City of Arlington website.
Read a poem.	Check out what's new in young adult fiction.	Draw a picture.	Check out the teen page on the library website.	Write a letter or card to a loved one and give it to them.