Echoes from the Hill
A Juneteenth Celebration of Arlington’s Black History
A documentary film crew sponsored by Arlington’s MLK Celebration Committee, Inc. is developing a multi-episode history series telling the largely forgotten story of Arlington’s Black past, tentatively called Echoes from the Hill.

This team will hold a panel discussion at the library to share some artifacts they’ve gathered.

We will also mark the official launch of our Arlington Black History Community Archive, a digital collection created by the library that provides free searchable access to many of the historical photos, recordings and documents featured in the Echoes from the Hill documentary!

Learn more about the film project, help us launch the digital collection, and learn how to contribute your own family stories or contacts to the Community Archive!
